Rule 24. Disciplinary-Authority to impose penalties

The Competent authority will also be called the Disciplinary authority (as specified in the schedule) for purposes of this rule and it may impose any of the penalties specified in Rule 23 on any employee.

Rule 25. Procedure for imposing major penalties

- (i) No order imposing any of the major penalties of Rule 23 shall be made except after an inquiry is held in accordance with this rule.
- (ii) Whenever the disciplinary authority is of the opinion that there are grounds for inquiring into the truth of any imputation of misconduct or misbehaviour against an employee, it may itself enquire into, or appoint any inquiring authority to inquire into the truth thereof. Provided that where there is a complaint of sexual harassment within the meaning of Rule 4(3) above, the complaints Committee for inquiring into such complaints, shall be deemed to be the inquiring authority appointed by the disciplinary authority for the purpose of these rules and the Complaints Committee shall hold, if separate procedure has not been prescribed for the complaints committee for holding the inquiry into the complaints of sexual harassments, the inquiry as far as practicable in accordance with the procedure laid down in these rules.

EXPLANATION - Where the disciplinary authority itself holds the inquiry, the inquiring authority shall be construed as a reference to the disciplinary authority.

- (iii) Where it is proposed to hold an inquiry, the Disciplinary Authority shall frame definite charges on the basis of articles of charges, the statement of imputations of misconduct or misbehavior and a list of documents and witnesses by which each article or charges is proposed to be sustained. On receipt of the articles of charge, the employee shall be required to submit his/her written statement of defense, if employee so desires, and also state whether employee desires to be heard in person, within a period of fifteen days, which may be further extended for a period not exceeding fifteen days at a time for reasons to be recorded in writing by the Disciplinary Authority or any other Authority authorized by the Disciplinary Authority on his/her behalf:

Provided that under no circumstances, the extension of time for filing written statement of defence shall exceed forty-five days from the date of receipt of articles of charge.

EXPLANATION-It will not be necessary to show the documents listed with the charge- sheet or any other document to the employee at this stage.

- (iv) On receipt of the written statement of defense, the disciplinary authority may itself inquire into such of the articles of charge as are not admitted, or, if it considers it necessary so to do, appoint, under sub rule (ii), an inquiring authority for the purpose, and where all the articles of charge have been admitted by the charged employee in his/her written statement of defense, the disciplinary authority shall record its findings on each charge after taking such evidence as it may think fit and shall act in the manner laid down in rule 26.

If no written statement is submitted by the charged employee, the disciplinary authority may itself inquire into the articles of charge, or may, if it considers necessary to do so, appoint, under sub-rule (ii), an inquiring authority for the purpose.

- (v) Where the disciplinary authority itself inquires or appoints an inquiring authority for holding an inquiry, it may, by an order appoint any public servant to be known as the "Presenting Officer" to present on its behalf the case in support of the articles of charge.
- (vi) The employee may take the assistance of any other public servant but may not engage a legal Practitioner for the purpose unless the Presenting Officer appointed by the disciplinary authority is a legal practitioner, or the disciplinary authority, having regard to the circumstances of the case, so permits.
- (vii) On the date fixed by the inquiring authority, the employee shall appear before the Inquiring Authority at the time, place and date specified in the notice. The inquiring authority shall ask the employee whether employee pleads guilty or has any defence to make and if employee pleads guilty to any of the articles of charge, the inquiring authority shall record the plea, sign the record and obtain the signature of the employee concerned thereon. The Inquiring Authority shall return a finding of guilt in respect of those articles of charge to which the charged sheeted employee concerned pleads guilty.

(viii) If the employee does not plead guilty, the inquiring authority shall adjourn the case to a later date not exceeding thirty days after recording an order that the charged sheeted employee may, for the purpose of preparing his/her defence:

- a. inspect the documents listed with charge-sheet.
- b. submit a list of additional documents and witnesses that employee wants to examine; and
- c. be supplied with the copies of the statements of witnesses, if any, listed in the charge-sheet.

Note : Relevancy of the additional document and the witnesses referred to in sub- clause (viii) (b) above will have to be given by the employee concerned and the documents and the witnesses shall be summoned if the inquiring authority is satisfied about their relevance to the charges under inquiry.

(ix) The inquiring authority shall ask the authority in whose custody or possession the documents are kept, for the production of the documents or issue a non-availability certificate before the Inquiring authority within one month of the receipt of such requisition:

Provided that if the authority having the custody or possession of the requisitioned documents is satisfied for reasons to be recorded by it in writing that the production of all or any of such documents would be against the public interest or security of the State, it shall inform the Inquiring Authority accordingly and the Inquiring Authority shall, on being so informed, communicate the information to the charged sheeted employee and withdraw the requisition made by it for the production or discovery of such documents.

(x) The authority in whose custody or possession the requisitioned documents are, shall arrange to produce the same before the inquiring authority on the date, place and time specified in the requisition notice. Provided that the authority having the custody or possession of the requisitioned documents may claim privilege if the production of such documents will be against the public interest or the interest of the Corporation. In that event, it shall inform the inquiring authority accordingly.

(xi) On the date fixed for the inquiry, the oral and documentary evidence by which the articles of charge are proposed to be proved shall be produced by or on behalf of the disciplinary authority. The witnesses shall be examined by or on behalf of the Presenting Officer and maybe cross-examined by or on behalf of the charged sheeted employee.

The Presenting Officer shall be entitled to re-examine the witness on any points on which they have been cross-examined, but not on a new matter, without the leave of the Inquiring Authority. The Inquiring Authority may also put such questions to the witnesses as it thinks fit.

- (xii) Before the close of the prosecution case, the inquiring authority may, in its discretion allow the Presenting Officer to produce evidence not included in the charge sheet or may itself call for new evidence or recall or re-examine any witness. In such case the charged sheeted employee shall be given opportunity to inspect the documentary evidence before it is taken on record; or to cross-examine a witness, who has been so summoned.
- (xiii) When the case for the disciplinary authority is closed, the charged sheeted employee may be required to state his/her defense, orally or in writing as employee may prefer. If the defense is made orally, it shall be recorded and the charged sheeted employee shall be required to sign the record. In either case a copy of the statement of defense shall be given to the Presenting Officer, if any appointed.
- (xiv) The evidence on behalf of the charged sheeted employee shall then be produced. The charged sheeted employee may examine himself /herself in his/her own behalf if employee so prefers. The witnesses produced by the charged sheeted employee shall then be examined and shall be liable to cross-examination, re-examination and examination by the inquiring authority according to the provision applicable to the witnesses for the disciplinary authority.
- (xv) The Inquiring Authority may, after the charged sheeted employee closes his/her case, and shall, if the employee has not examined himself/herself, generally question the charged sheeted employee on the circumstances appearing against the charged sheeted employee in the evidence for the purpose of enabling the charged sheeted employee to explain any circumstances appearing in the evidence against him/her.
- (xvi) After the completion of the production of the evidence, the charged sheeted employee and the Presenting Officer may file written briefs of their respective cases within 15 days of the date of completion of the production of evidence.
- (xvii) If charged sheeted employee does not submit the written statement of defense referred to in sub-rule (iii) on or before the date specified for the purpose or does not appear in person, or through the assisting officer or otherwise fails or refuses to comply with any of the provisions of these rules, the inquiring authority may hold the enquiry ex parte.
- (xviii) Whenever any inquiring authority, after having heard and recorded the whole or any part of the evidence in an inquiry ceases to exercise jurisdiction therein, and is succeeded by another inquiring authority which has, and which exercises, such jurisdiction, the inquiring authority so succeeding may act on the evidence so recorded by its predecessor, or partly recorded by its predecessor and partly recorded by itself.
Provided that if the succeeding inquiring authority is of the opinion that further examination of any of the witnesses whose evidence has already been recorded is necessary in the interest of justice, it may recall examine, cross-examine and re-examine any such witnesses as herein before provided.

- (xix) (i) After the conclusion of the inquiry, report shall be prepared and it shall contain-
- (a) a gist of the articles of charge and the statement of the imputations of misconduct or misbehavior;
 - (b) a gist of the defense of the charged sheeted employee in respect of each article of charge;
 - (c) and assessment of the evidence in respect of each article of charge;
 - (d) the findings on each article of charge and the reasons therefore.

Explanation- If in the opinion of the inquiring authority the proceedings of the inquiry establish any article of charge different from the original articles of the charge, it may record its findings on such article of charge.

Provided that the findings on such article of charge shall not be recorded unless the charged sheeted employee has either admitted the facts on which such article of charge is based or has had a reasonable opportunity of defending oneself against such article of charge

- (ii) The inquiring authority, where it is not itself the disciplinary authority, shall forward to the disciplinary authority the records of inquiry which shall include-
- (a) The report of the inquiry prepared by it under sub-clause (i) above;
 - (b) The written statement of defence if any submitted by the employee referred to in sub-rule (xiii)
 - (c) The oral and documentary evidence produced in the course of the inquiry;
 - (d) Written briefs referred to in sub-rule (xvi) if any; and
 - (e) The orders if any made by the disciplinary authority and the inquiry authority in regard to the inquiry.

- (xx) (a) The Inquiring Authority should conclude the inquiry and submit his/her report within a period of six months from the date of receipt of order of his/her appointment as Inquiring Authority.

- (b) Where it is not possible to adhere to the time limit specified in clause the Inquiring Authority may record the reasons and seek extension of time from the disciplinary authority in writing, who may allow an additional time not exceeding six months for completion of the Inquiry, at a time.
- (c) The extension for a period not exceeding six months at a time may be allowed for any good and sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing by the Disciplinary Authority or any other Authority authorized by the Disciplinary authority on on his/her behalf.

Rule 26. Action on the inquiry report

- (1) The disciplinary authority, if it is not itself the inquiring authority may, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, remit the case of the inquiring authority for fresh or further inquiry and report and the inquiry authority shall there upon proceed to hold the further inquiry according to the provisions of Rule 25 as far as may be .
- (2) The disciplinary authority shall forward or cause to be forwarded a copy of the report of the inquiry, if any, held by the disciplinary authority or where the disciplinary authority is not the inquiring authority, a copy of the report of the inquiring authority, together with its own tentative reasons for disagreement, if any, with the findings of inquiring authority on any article of charge to the employee who shall be required to submit if employee so desires, his/her written representation or submission to the disciplinary authority within fifteen days, irrespective of whether the report is favorable or not to the employee.
- (3) If the disciplinary authority having regard to its findings on all or any of the articles of charge is of the opinion that any of the penalties that any of the penalties specified in Rule 23 should be imposed on the employee it shall, notwithstanding anything contained in Rule 27 make an order imposing such penalty.
- (4) If the disciplinary authority having regard to its findings on all or any of the articles of charge, is of the opinion that no penalty is called for, it may pass an order exonerating the employee concerned.

Rule 26-A - In the matter of promotion of employees against whom disciplinary / court proceedings are pending or whose conduct is under investigation, the procedure may be follow in accordance with the DOPT OM No. 22011/4/91- Estt.(A) dated 14.09.1992 and subsequent instructions of DOPT on sealed cover procedure.
